PROFILE

A professional with many years of experience in informal businesses, combined with solid training in African culture and a strong aptitude for acquiring new knowledge. Able to work both in a team and independently, with proven organizational skills and expertise in audiovisual production and African history. Possessing strong organizational abilities and solid knowledge in the field of tax fraud prevention and anti-money laundering/terrorism financing, I aim to develop my career within the financial sector. I easily adapt to new work environments thanks to genuine teamwork spirit, excellent listening, and strong communication skills.
